

Esk Valley Virtual Rurality

Online community partnership event

Friday 31st July 2020

10-10.30am: Welcome, introductions and ice breaker

10.30-11am: North Yorkshire Sport

Keeping active through lockdown: An overview of North Yorkshire Sport's response to lockdown and a warm up.

11-11.30am: Musical Memories CIC

Ruth and Neil Hannah talk about how they have stayed connected to their audience and provide their Tune a Day live.

Break

11.45-12.15pm: North York Moors National Parks

Linking live with his regulars at care homes NYMNP Volunteer Jim Hall will take us on a virtual walk in the national park, something he did at residential homes pre-lockdown.

12.15-1pm: Camphill Village Trust

The social farm team at Botton have used Zoom to keep people connected and we will go live for a fun, interactive and informative session.

1-1.30pm: Break for lunch

1.30-2.15pm: Esk Valley Together The Movie (and discussion) -

We will watch the recently made film which documents the community response to lockdown and the pandemic followed by a discussion.

2.15-3.30pm: Re-imagining the Future – Three led themes

- What should the future look like? David Stone, CaVCA and their work with People's Recovery Coalition harnessing views and ambitions for post-Covid communities.
- Youth Voice – Esk Valley Native and Youth MP Rebecca Morgan: Involving and capturing youth voice in shaping the future.
- Voluntary and Community Organisations supporting and providing and surviving through the pandemic – Scarborough & Ryedale VCS Leaders Forum's Julie Macey-Hewitt; Age UK and Claire Robinson; Scarborough and Ryedale Carers Resource.

3.30-4pm: Revd Sally Wilson

How the Church have stayed connected and we will have a moment to reflect.

4-4.30pm: Final thoughts and a musical finale with Glaisdale's fantastic Dave Crabtree and brother Mikey live!

